

The Cogswell University of Silicon Valley Institutional Scholarship and Grant Program is designed to provide tuition assistance to eligible students who meet the criteria outlined below. The criteria have been designed to give the Scholarship Selection Committee maximum flexibility in awarding institutional scholarships and grants. Recipients will be selected without regard to race, color, sex, creed, religious preference, age, national origin, disability or any other legally protected status.

Eligibility Criteria:

The institutional tuition assistance program is available to accepted applicants and currently enrolled and/or attending students who meet the admissions requirements for Cogswell University of Silicon Valley. Additionally, applicants must meet all of the stated criteria outlined below to be eligible to apply.

To be awarded the scholarship, students must:

- Be accepted, enrolled, or attending Cogswell University of Silicon Valley;
- Be enrolled with full-time status of 12 credits* or more per term for undergraduate students or 6 credits or more for graduate students;
- Demonstrate satisfactory academic progress by maintaining a cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) of 2.0 or higher;
- Complete a Scholarship Request Form; and
- Provide acceptable documentation to verify eligibility as required; and
- Submit a 200-word (minimum) essay on why you are a good candidate for an institutional scholarship or grant.
 - The essay must conform to basic academic standards, including proper spelling, grammar, and punctuation, and should be typed (printed), double-spaced, with 1-inch margins. All essays must be signed by the applicant.

Awarding Process and Rules

- Each applicant must complete a Scholarship Request Form and provide acceptable documentation as required.
- All eligible applications will be reviewed by the Scholarship Committee for completeness and accuracy of all information provided.
- Students who apply and meet all requirements will be considered for the specified scholarship or grant applied for.
- Of those viable applications, the awards will be distributed on a first-come, first-serve basis; and approved recipients will be awarded during the financial aid packaging process.
- Institutional scholarships and grants will be applied as a credit against tuition and will not be issued to the student in the form of cash.
- Institutional scholarships and grants are not transferable.
- Institutional scholarships and grants may be used in conjunction with other institutional scholarship and grant programs, but cannot exceed the direct educational program costs.
- A maximum of three scholarships or grants will be awarded to eligible students and scholarships or grants awarded will be based on those that are most beneficial to the student.
- Institutional scholarships and grants are automatically renewable each academic year providing the student maintains eligibility.
- Continued eligibility requires students to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress with full-time enrollment per term.
- Failure to meet full-time requirements or Satisfactory Academic Progress may result in the reduction or loss of institutional scholarships or grants.
- Institutional scholarship and grant awards are for the length of the educational program for a maximum of 10 terms.

All scholarship amounts are calculated based on eligibility criteria and determined by established guidelines. Funding for these programs is limited, therefore Cogswell University of Silicon Valley reserves the right to cancel a scholarship or grant program at any time at its discretion. However, all scholarships and grants that have been awarded will be honored provided the student continues to meet eligibility.
