

The University of Silicon Valley Valor Scholarship Program is a need-based scholarship program that is designed to provide tuition assistance to eligible students with demonstrated financial need. Financial need is based upon the difference between available resources and funding eligibility relative to the direct educational program costs. This scholarship program is designed to help students who meet the criteria outlined below. The criteria have been designed to give the Scholarship Selection Committee maximum flexibility in awarding the scholarship. Recipients will be selected without regard to race, color, sex, creed, religious preference, age, national origin, disability or any other legally protected status.

Eligibility Criteria:

This scholarship program is available to accepted applicants and currently enrolled and/or attending students who meet the admissions requirements for the University of Silicon Valley. Additionally, applicants must meet all of the stated criteria outlined below to be eligible to apply.

To be awarded the scholarship, students must:

- Be a US citizen, eligible non-citizen, or DACA student;
- Be accepted, enrolled, or attending the University of Silicon Valley;
- Be enrolled with full-time status of 12 credits or more per term;
- Demonstrate satisfactory academic progress by having a cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) of 2.0 or higher;
- Demonstrate financial need as determined by the financial aid application process and based on information provided by a completed Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) or the CA Dream Act Application (CADA);
- Apply for and accept all applicable state, agency, private, and/or federal student aid for which you and/or your parents qualify; and
- Complete a Scholarship Application.
